About the Friends

The Friends of Russell Library raise and receive funds for books, equipment, programs and other needs not covered by the library budget. Every dollar raised is used directly to support the library. Some members support the Friends simply by paying their annual dues, while others become more involved by donating their time.

For more information about the Friends, please call the Programs & Publicity Office at (860) 347-2528, ext. 135.
